

BULLETIN
OF
THE TOKUGAWA INSTITUTE FOR THE HISTORY
OF FORESTRY
(Tokugawa Rinseishi Kenkyūjo Kenkyū Kiyō)

March 2006

Vol. 40

CONTENTS

Articles

- A research on the historical documents related to the national forests in the whole of Japan, and a study of the outlook for its modern recent history research.
.....Morihiro Katō
.....Naohiro Ōta (1)
- A study of the relation between peasant management and switch farming (kiribata) in the Tokugawa feudal domain. — following the 1724 Kyōhō forest control policy reformation in Kiso area—.....Akira Ōsaki (15)
- A study of the movement which demanded the establishment of Jo-sukegou by stages in the Kiso Mountains in the Bakumatsu.Tatsuhiko Sakamoto (39)
- An analysis of the photographs taken by the Owari Tokugawa family from the Bakumatsu to the Meiji era and a study of its technical development.
.....Kōin Shirane (55)
- About the wreckage of ships and the processing in Ise Gulf.Yoriko Hayashi (77)
- An investigative report about the historical materials held by the Chūbu Forestry Department.Naohiro Ōta (95)
- A study of government forestry administration in the early Meiji period, with a case study of the actual conditions of the project of tree seed gathering in every national forest which was carried out by Home Affairs Ministry.Naohiro Ōta (101)
- A report on the nyuurin-kansatsu in Nagano prefecture in the early Meiji period.
.....Hisato Yamazaki (115)
- A study of the control system over the national forests, and the activities of government officials in charge of management (kanshunin) in the early Meiji period.
.....Tatsuhiko Sakamoto (129)
- A study of the actualities of forestry in the Kiso area in the early Meiji period, with an analysis of the exhibition at the 2nd national industrial exposition.
.....Noboru Tahara (137)
- A study of the ladies-in-waiting who served under the Owari Tokugawa family, with a case study of Teishinin, the wife of twelfth Feudal lord, Naritaka Tokugawa and her ladies -in-waiting.Hisako Hata (153)

[Historical Material]

- An investigative report about the forestation project carried out in Saitama prefecture from the end of the Meiji to the Taishō period.Uki Ohdachi (173)
- Historical materials written by Yoshikatsu Tokugawa, head of the Owari Tokugawa family concerning his study of photographs, Part Two. (205)

[Appendix]

- A catalog of historical materials concerning the Owari Tokugawa family, Part Two.
..... (1)

THE TOKUGAWA INSTITUTE FOR THE HISTORY OF FORESTRY

(TOKUGAWA RINSEISHI KENKYŪJO)
THE TOKUGAWA REIMEIKAI FOUNDATION
8-11, Mejiro 3-chōme, Toshima-ku, Tokyo, 171-0031, Japan